INDEX TO VOL. LXXXVII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACH

ACHILLES, The Heel of, 1100–1110
Africa and the Blight of Commercialism, 1074–1087
Aged poor and increase of pensions, 33–44
Agricultural Land, The Use of, 802–813
Agriculture a recognised industry for women, 1–16
Agriculture in France, 439–454
Air Force and National Defence, 241–244
Allcroft (A. Hadrian), The Modernity of Stonehenge, 678–696
Alternative Government, An, 17–26
America and the British Empire, 595–608
Amritsar, The Prelude to, 1066–1073
Arab Nationalism and future of Syria, 387–395
Archer (William), The 'Duchess of Malfi,' 126–132
Army, Lessons for all from the, 971–978
Art, Character in, 851–855
Arthur (Sir George), his life of Lord Kitchener, 957–970
Ashfield (Lord), London's Traffic Problem, 773–789
Asquith (Mr.), Home Rule, League of Nations, and Bolshevism, 628–637
Aston (Major Gen. Sir George), How the Next War will be fought, 424–438
Atomic energy and future of Science, 367–376
Austrian débâcle and the future of Central Europe, 409–423
Aviation and air transport, 209–216

BABOUVISME and Bolshevism, 856–873
Baker (Herbert), Reminiscences of Cecil Rhodes, 88–102
Baltic States and the Bolsheviks, 530–536
Balzac's Short Stories, 484–491
Barclay (Sir Thomas), A Theory of the Misunderstood 'Three,' 609–623
Barry (Canon William), Constantinople, 718–728

CEN

Bashford (Major Lindsay), Lord Milner and his Mission, 377–386
Battle of Tannenberg, Who Won, 885–894
Batum, British occupation of, 350–359
Beauty and personality in art, 851
Bechhofer (C. E.), British in Southern Russia, 350–359
Benoît de Sainte More, his 'Roman de Troie,' 1010–1023
Bolsheviks, anti-Bolsheviks, and German intrigues, 58–73; and Red Army, 344–349; and the Ukraine, Polish advance, 990–999
Bolsheviks, Baltic States and the, 530–536
Bolshevism a danger to civilisation, 375–376; and British Labour, 589–594, 916–928
Bolshevism and Babouvisme, 856–873
Bolshevism, European, Some Experiences of, 518–529
Bonaparte's courtship at Nice, 1057–1062
British Empire, America and the, 595–608
British Guards, their war record, 217–235
British in Southernmost Russia, 350–359
British trade and Italian customers, 1000–1009
Bonavia (F.), Peace, Pride, and Prejudice, 168–176
Brontë (Charlotte) and the governess in fiction and fact, 657–667
Butterflies and the spring, 837–844
Bywater (Hector G.), Weapons of Jutland, 757–708

CAPITALISM and Socialism, an alternative to, 1021–1031
Carlyle (Thomas), 'Christopher North,' 103–117
Caucasus, The Frosty, 1088–1099
Causerie, A, 628–637
'Centuries of Meditation,' by Thomas Traherne, 1024–1030

CHA

Chancellor (E. Beresford), A Nobler and Reconstructed London, 283–291
Character in Art, 851–855
Charteris (John), 'The Spirit that never knew Defeat,' 187–208
Christian Reunion, The Way of, 814–825
'Christopher North,' 103–117
Church Congress and Spiritualism, 150–158
Church of the Future, The, 133–149
Citizen Army for National Defence, 236–253
City of London before the Conquest, 1042–1056
Clarke (Rev. A. H. T.), Church of the Future, 133–149
Clemenceau, President Wilson, and Mr. Lloyd George, 609–623
Clyde, The Immortal River, 769–772
Coalition Government, its record and its prospects, 159–166; and Labour Party, 17–26
Coalition, The, 397–408
Coleridge (Hon. Gilbert), Richard Jefferies and the Unknown God, 492–498
Commander-in-Chief and War Cabinet: a Government's Grave Error, 790–801
Communication with the dead, spiritualising of Spiritualism, 150–158
Conflict between President and Senate, 895–903
Constantinople, 718–728
Cornford (L. Cope), The Future of the Navy, 1111–1120
Corradini (Enrico), New Parliament in Rome, 45–57
Courtier-Forster (Rev. R.), Some Experiences of European Bolshevism, 518–529
Cowper's poetry, 1031–1034
Crabitès (Pierre), Republicanism in France and Germany, 874–884
Criminal psychology, heredity, and environment, 904–915
Crops and the soil, 802–813
Crosse (Gordon), What did Shakespeare write? 469–483

DEMOBILISED soldiers and sailors, civil employment for, 979–989
Democratic government in France and Germany, 874–884
Dewar (George A. B.), National Debt of Honour: Our Disabled Officers, 27–32; Commander-in-Chief and War Cabinet: a Government's Grave Error, 790–801

EX

Dictys and Dares, forged histories of Trojan War, 1010–1023
Dimond (Charles), Music in the Novels of George Meredith, 845–850
Dionysus, The Return of, 396
Disabled Officers, The Case of our, 27–32
Disabled soldiers and sailors, Trade Union ostracism of, 979–989
Dockrell (Sir Maurice), Why I oppose the Home Rule Bill, 624–627
Doom of Hungary, 729–741
Druidical stone circles and the age of Stonehenge, 678–696
'Duchess of Malfi,' The, 126–132
Dundas (Lieut-Col. James C.), The U.S.A. Constitution and the Treaty, 742–756
Dyer (General) and disturbances at Amritsar, 1066–1073

EARLY Development of London, 1042–1056
East African natives and League of Nations, 1074–1087
East Prussia and the War, 885–894
Eastern and Western Christendom, reunion between, 814–825
Egypt, Lord Milner's Mission to, 377–386
Elizabethan and Restoration plays, production by Phœnix Society, 126–132; drama and plays attributed to Shakespeare, 469–483
Empire defence and future war methods, 424–438
Employment for women, 331–343
English masters of prose and poetry, 826–836
Englishwomen and the War, 938–956
Ernle (Lord), Women's Labour Army, 1–16; Farming Partnerships in France, 439–454; The Siege of Troy: a Romance of Medieval Fiction, 1010–1023
Esthonia and Bolsheviks, 530–536
Ewart (Capt. Wilfrid), Brigade of Guards in the European War, 217–235; Some Younger Women of Modern England, 938–956
Examinations, Evil of, 320–330
Exeter (Dean of), John Wesley, 668–677
Ex-Kaiser and his Officers, 537–554
Ex-Service Man and Trade Unions 979–989

FARMING, suitability of soil, 802–813
Farming Partnerships in France, 439–454
Fisher (Joseph R.), Crime in Ireland, 360–366
Fisher (Victor), Where is Labour going? 916–928
Five Wits, Warming the, 697–717
Flying and the Future, 209–216
Foul Play for the Ex-Service Man, 979–989
France and Germany, Republicanism in, 874–884
France, Farming Partnerships in, 439–454
Frazer (Sir James), William Cowper, 1031–1034
Free Economy: an Alternative to Capitalism and to Socialism, 1121–1131
French fiction and Balzac's short stories, 484–491
French Revolution, Babeuf and Robespierre, 856–873
Future of the Navy, 1111–1131

GAMBLE (Dean H. R.), John Wesley, 668–677
Georgians, Armenians, and Russians in the Caucasus, 1088–1099
Georgians and Turks, British occupation of Batum, 350–359
German East Africa and its future, 1074–1087
German expiation, the decision at Spa, 1063–1065
German intrigues and Bolshevism in Russia, 518–529
German Revolution, Inner History of the, 555–573
Germany, Republicanism in France and, 874–884
Gesell (Silvio), new economic theory, free money, 1121–1131
Ginistrelli (E. P.), Italy to-day, 1000–1023
Godley (A. D.), The Victorians, 273–282
Gordon (Seton), The Mountain Birds of Scotland, 1035–1041
Gordon (Lt.-Gen. Sir A. H.), Lessons for all from the Army, 971–978
Governess Triumphant, The, 657–667
Government by Trade Unions, 254–263
Government, Coalition, its work, its enemies, and its principles, 397–408
Government's Grave Error: Commander-in-Chief and War Cabinet, 790–801
Gower Street in the 'Seventies, 292–301

Green (Walford D.), America and the British Empire, 595–608; Real Meaning of a Labour Government, 254–263
Gray (Maxwell), see Tuttiett (Mary G.)
Grey (Rowland), see Rowland-Brown (Lilian)
Greek as a subject in University studies, 574–581
Groote Schuur, South African home of Cecil Rhodes, 88–102
Grown-ups and young persons, want of mutual understanding, 1132–1138
Guards, Brigade of, in the European War, 217–235
Guild State, The, 177–186

HABITUAL Offender or Recidivist, 904–915
Haig's (Sir Douglas) Despatches, 187–208
Harley (J. H.), Polish Advance in the Ukraine, 990–999
Harrison (Alfred), Memories of the House of Lords, 499–517
Hatch (Sir Ernest), Uprising of Labour, 17–26
Hawthorne the Mystic, 118–125
Heel of Achilles, The, 1100–1110
Hibernian wit and humour, 651–656
Highland birds and eyries, 1035–1041
Hindenburg line and British strategy, 187–208
Hindu music compared with European, 310–319
Hoare (Lieut.-Col. Sir Samuel), Vienna and the State of Central Europe, 409–423
Hodge (Harold), A Neglected Awakening, 837–844
Hogarth (D. G.), The Burden of Syria, 387–395
Holland and surrender of the ex-Kaiser, 537–554
Home Rule Bill, Why I opposed it, 624–627
Home Workers, Sweated, 929–937
House of Lords, Memories of, 499–517
Humour in the Irish Courts, 651–656
Hungary, Doom of, 729–741
Hurst (Lieut.-Col. Gerald B.), Political Prospect, 159–167; The Immortal 'River Clyde,' 769–772; Foul Play for the Ex-Service Man, 979–989

INDIA, Why lose her? 264–272
India, riots and repression in 1919, Hunter Committee's report, 1066–1073

IND

Indian Music, 310–319
Industrial problems and State control, 455–468
Intercommunion between Churchmen and Nonconformists, 814–825
Ireland, Crime in, 360–366
Ireland the vulnerable part of the British Empire, 1100–1110
Irish Courts, Humour in the, 651–656
Italian Parliament, Parties in, 45–57
Italy to-day, 1000–1009

JEFFERIES (Richard) and the Unknown God, 492–498
Jutland, Weapons of, 757–708

KIEL Mutiny and German revolution, 555–573
Kitchener, 957–970
Knowles (Sir Lees), A Causerie, 628–637
Kolchak, Yudenitch, and Bolsheviks, 58–73

LABOUR Government, Real Meaning of a, 254–263
Labour Programme, A Sane, 589–594
Labour, Uprising of, 17–26
Labour, Where is it going? 916–928
Laurenti family and Bonaparte's courtship, 1057–1062
League of Nations and Anglo-American friendship, 595–608; and American Senate, 895–903
Lessons for all from the Army, 971–978
Lewis (Azéline), Napoleon in Nice, 1057–1062
Literary Form: is it now possible? 826–836
London, A Nobler and Reconstructed, 283–289
London, Early Development of, 1042–1056
London's Traffic Problem, 773–789
Low (A. Maurice), The Conflict between President and Senate, 895–903
Luce (Morton), A Stream: a Philosophy and an Illustration, 582–588
Lys (F. J.), University of Oxford and the Nation, 574–581

MACLEANE (Canon Douglas), Literary Form: is it now possible? 826–836
'Malfi, The Duchess of,' 126–132
Man Power in the next War, 638–650
Marriott (J. A. R.), Nationalisation? 455–468; The Heel of Achilles, 1100–1110

PAG

Marshall (Justice J. E.), The Recidivist or Habitual Offender, 904–915
Merchant shipping, protection in war time, 1111–1120
Meredith (George), Music in the Novels of, 854–850
Methodists and the brothers Wesley, 668–677
Military training for Defence, 638–650
Milner (Lord) and his Mission, 377–386
Misunderstood 'Three,' Theory of the 609–623
Modern England, The Young Women of, 938–958
Modernity of Stonehenge, 678–696
Montagu-Chelmsford reforms and the Government of India, 264–272
Monteith (Mary E.), Church Congress and Spiritualism, 150–158
Mountain Birds of Scotland, 1035–1041
Music in the Novels of George Meredith, 845–850

NAPOLEON in Nice, 1057–1062
National Debt of Honour, 27–32
National Defence, Great Vital Question of, 236–253
National military training and Imperial defence, 638–650; and the evolution of our Army, 957–978
National Party, Liberals, and Trade Unions, 254–263
Nationalisation? 455–468
Nature and religion, Richard Jefferies' confession of faith, 492–498
Navy, Army, and Air Force for National Defence, 236–253
Navy, The Future of the, 1111–1120
Neglected Awakening, 837–844
Neuman (B. Paul), Gower Street in the 'Seventies, 292–301
New England life as depicted by Hawthorne, 118–125
New Parliament in Rome, 45–57
Nineteenth century England and the Victorian Age, 273–282
'Noctes Ambrosianæ' and Prof. Wilson, 103–117

OFFICERS disabled in the War, our debt to them, 27–32
Old-Age Pensioners' Standpoint, 33–44
Oxford, University of, and the Nation, 574–581

PAGE (William), The Early Development of London, 1042–1056
Paris Conference and Russian problem, 74–87

PAR

Parker (Eric), Future of the Sport of Shooting, 302–309
Parliamentary anomalies and government by Guilds, 177–186; parties, relative strength of, 17–26; reminiscences, a half-century among the Peers, 490–517
Passenger traffic in London and America, 773–789
Peace, Pride, and Prejudice, 168–176
Peace, The return of, 396
Petrograd, why it has not been taken, 58–73
Pheasant-shooting and mechanical sport, 302–309
Phelps (Sydney K.), Sweated Home Workers, 929–937
Piggott (Sir Francis), The ex-Kaiser and his Officers, 537–554
Poetry and humour of Cowper, 1031–1034
Poliakoff (Vladimir), Russia in disruption: Red Army as it really is to-day, 344–349
Polish Advance in the Ukraine, 990–999
Political Prospect, The, 159–167
Pollock (John), Why Petrograd has not been taken, 58–73; Baltic States and Bolsheviks, 530–536
Post-Roman London and extra-mural 'sokes,' 1042–1056
President and Senate, Conflict between, 895–903
Protestantism, Catholicism, and the Church of the future, 133–149
Punjab disturbances and events at Amritsar, 1066–1073
Pye (Philip), Free-Economy: Alternative to Capitalism and to Socialism, 1121–1131

RACE, The, 367–376
Railways, tramways, and motor routes of London, 773–789
Recidivist or Habitual Offender, 904–915
Red Army as it really is to-day, 344–349
Rees (Sir J. D.), The Frosty Caucasus, 1088–1099
Repington (Lt.-Col. C. à Court), Kitchener, 957–978
Régnier (Prof. V. P.), The Doom of Hungary, 729–741
Reminiscences of Cecil Rhodes, 88–102
Republicanism in France and Germany, 874–884
Rew (Sir Henry), The Use of Agricultural Land, 802–813
Rhodes (Cecil), Reminiscences of, 88–102

SYR

Rice (Stanley), Indian Music, 310–319
'River Clyde,' The Immortal, 769–772
Rome, The New Parliament in, 45–57
Ross (Major Ronald), Humour in the Irish Courts, 651–656
Rowland-Brown (Lilian), The Governess Triumphant, 657–667
Rowland (Stanley), Character in Art, 851–855
Russia and the Allied Policy, 74–87
Russia in Disruption, 344–359
Russian Bolshevism and German intrigues, 518–529
Russian invasion of East Prussia, battle of Tannenberg, 885–894

SANE Labour Programme, A, 589–594
Sea-power in the future, 1111–1120
Seddon (J. A.), A Sane Labour Programme, 589–594
Seely (Major-Gen. J. E. B.), Flying and the Future, 209–216
Sefton-Delmer (F.), Inner History of the German Revolution, 555–573; Who won the Battle of Tannenberg? 885–894; The Mood at Spa, 1063–1065
Sellers (Edith), From the Old-Age Pensioners' Standpoint, 33–44
Senses, The five, their relative importance, 697–717
Seventeenth-century poetry and Thomas Traherne, 1024–1030
Shakespeare, what did he write? 469–483
Shooting, Future of the Sport of, 302–309
Simpson (Prof. J. Y.), Russia and the Allied Policy, 74–87
Sinn Fein and lawlessness in Ireland, 360–366, 1100–1110
Smith (E. Sharwood), Evil of Examinations, 320–330
Socialist revolution in Germany, 555–573
Songs and musical emotion, 845–850
'Spirit that never knew Defeat,' The, 187–208
Spring butterflies, 837–844
Stone (Brig.-Gen. F. G.), Man Power in the Next War, 638–650
Street (G. S.), Young and Old, 1132–1138
Stream, A: a Philosophy and an Illustration, 582–588
Sweated Home Workers, 929–937
Syria, The Burden of, 387–395

TAN

TANNENBERG, Who won the Battle of? 885–894
Taylor (G. R. Stirling), The Guild State, 177–186
Thames Embankment and reconstruction of London, 283–291
'Three,' Theory of the Misunderstood, 609–623
Tilby (R. Wyatt), Warming the Five Wits, 697–717
Towers (Frances), Thomas Traherne: his Outlook on Life, 1024–1030
Trade Unions and Bolshevism, 589–594; and returned soldiers and sailors, 979–989
Traffic problem of London, 773–789
Traherne (Thomas): his Outlook on Life, 1024–1030
Treaty, The, and U.S.A. Constitution, 742–756
Troy, The Siege of: a Romance of Medieval Fiction, 1010–1023
Tuckwell (Gertrude), Women in Industry, 331–343
Tuttiett (Mary G.), Hawthorne the Mystic, 118–125

UKRAINE, Polish invasion of the, Ulster and Home Rule, 624–627
University College, London, and its Professors, 292–301
University Local Examinations and improvement of secondary schools, 320–330
Uprising of Labour, 17–26
U.S.A. Constitution and the Treaty, 742–756

VICTORIANS, The: a Plea for Justice, 273–282
Vienna and the State of Central Europe, 409–438

WAR criminals and their punishment, 537–554
War despatches, British offensive and the Hindenburg line, 187–208

ZAN

War, Man Power in the Next, 638–650
War strategy and civilian Cabinet interference, 790–801
War work and employment of women, 331–343
Warming the Five Wits, 697–717
Water music, 582–588
Watson (Sir William), The Return of Dionysus, 396
Weapons of Jutland, 757–768
Webster (Mrs.), Babouvisme and Bolshevism, 856–873
Webster's (John) play, 'Duchess of Malfi,' 126–132
Wedmore (Sir Frederick), Balzac's Short Stories, 484–491
Welldon (Bishop), The Way of Christian Reunion, 814–825
Wesley (John), 668–677
Where is Labour going? 916–928
Why I oppose the Home Rule Bill, 624–627
Why lose India? 264–272
Wild (Sir Ernest E.) The Coalition, 397–408
William Cowper, 1031–1034
Williams (L. F. Rushbrook), Prelude to Amritsar, 1066–1073
Wilson (President) and the Peace Conference, 167–176; Peace Treaty and the Senate, 895–903
Wilson (Prof. John), 'Christopher North,' Thomas Carlyle's reminiscences of, 103–117
Women home-workers and their pay, 929–937
Women in Industry, 331–343
Women's Land Army, 1–16
Wyatt (Harold F.) The Race, 367–376

YOUNG and Old, 1132–1138
Young Women of Modern England, Some, 938–956

ZANZIBAR (Bishop of), Africa and the Blight of Commercialism, 1074–1087
PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE, BALLANTYNE & CO. LTD.
LONDON, COLCHESTER AND ETON, ENGLAND